

SCRIPTURE READINGS

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel and told them if it did not please them to serve God, then they must decide who they would serve. The people claimed that God had brought them out of slavery and protected them on their journey. Therefore, they would serve the Lord their God, and no one else.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:21-32 or 5:2a, 25-32

Husbands and wives should love one another as Christ loved the Church. They should nourish and care for each other as Christ cared for the church. Through the union between the two, they become one.

Gospel: John 6:60-69

Many of Jesus' followers were still disturbed by his teaching of the living bread, which they could not yet fully understand.

Jesus explained that the Spirit gives life, and flesh is unimportant. Some of the disciples decided to leave. Jesus asked if the Twelve also wanted to leave. Although they do not completely understand yet, they have enough faith in Jesus to stay because they believe he is God's holy one.

Stay on top of national and international issues of concern to Catholics, each Sunday's Scripture reading commentaries by Dialog columnists and the work of the church in the nation and world by visiting www.thedialog.org.

VOCATIONS: In today's first reading, Joshua tells the tribes of Israel "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." All of us are called to serve the Lord, though not in the same way. Some are called to give witness to the Kingdom of God through vows of poverty, chastity and obedience; some are called to feed God's people at the table of the Eucharist; some are called to provide ministry through proclamation of the Gospel. Is God is calling you to serve as a priest, deacon or religious. If you think so, please call or write Father David Kelley, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations at 302-573-3113, or vocations@cdow.org. Be sure to visit our website: www.CalledByTheLord.com!

CATHOLIC FORUM: Listen to Catholic Forum every Sunday morning at 10:05 a.m. on WDEL 101.7 FM, 1150 AM and www.wdel.com. Next Sunday, August 30th, Margrit Anna Banta, author of the book, "What Do I Say: Talking and Praying with Someone who is Dying" will be the guest. For photos, information regarding upcoming guests and more, "Like" Catholic Forum on Facebook at www.facebook.com/catholicforum.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER WEEKEND: In the second reading today St. Paul talks about the special kind of love between a husband and a wife. Through the sacrament of Matrimony we are called to live in love as Christ loved us. Does our marriage relationship reflect the love of Christ for all to see? The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is scheduled for November 6-8 in Rehoboth Beach, DE. For more information, visit our website at www.wvme-delmar.org or to register for the weekend, please call Tony & Linda Massino at 302-220-9833.
