

SCRIPTURE READINGS

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First Reading: Isaiah 2:1-5

The words of Isaiah urge all people to forsake war and to live in peace forever. The tone reaches a climax in the words, "One nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again."

Second Reading: Romans 13:11-14

Paul invites us to put away all the things of darkness and sin and to prepare for the coming of Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 24:37-44

A comparison is made between the destruction caused by the flood in Noah's time and the need to be prepared for the second coming of Christ. "You must be prepared in the same way. The Son of Man is coming at the time you least expect."

Parish Religious Education Program

Bringing the Gospel Home

Nov. 27 – First Sunday of Advent
Matthew 24:37-44

Make an Advent wreath this season with your family. You can make it from natural materials or construction paper, but basically you will need a green wreath (the green wreath represents God's unending love). A green ribbon wrapped around a grapevine or straw or styrofoam wreath works too. Three purple candles represent forgiveness and one pink candle represents joy and is usually lit on the third week of Advent. Each week as you light a new candle, encourage each member of the family to tell one thing s/he will do during the week to prepare for Jesus' return.

Discussion Starters

1. If today were the last day of life on earth, I would . . .
2. In order to help my family see the light of Christ this Advent season, one distraction I plan to eliminate is . . .
3. The joy I have in my heart this season is because . . .

Advent Parish Service Project Opportunity! All Are Welcome!!!

The students in grades 6-10 are invited to participate in assembling and placing Christmas greens on the graves in St. John's cemetery on Saturday morning, December 3rd. This project provides the students with the opportunity to live out their faith by completing a Corporal Act of Mercy – "bury the dead".

This project is a large undertaking, as there are approximately 200 graves in the cemetery! We would like to invite the entire parish to join with the students that morning in whatever way is possible. You can pray for them, you can provide some of the cut greens needed, or you can actually join us in this act of Christian charity!! We will be at St. John's by 9:00 am on that morning. You are welcome to come for the entire morning, or for whatever portion of the morning you can give to this Act of Mercy.

SAINTS OF NOVEMBER

GERTRUDE THE GREAT

Feast Day: November 16th

Canonized: 1677

There are several saints who have the words "the great" after their names, but St. Gertrude the Great is the only female to have that honor.

Gertrude of Helfra was a Benedictine nun, a mystic, writer and a theologian who was born in what is now

Germany in 1256. Some histories say she was an orphan who came to the monastery as a young girl of about five years of age. After receiving an education she decided to become a nun, but while she was very interested in learning, the spiritual side of her education was not as important to her.

It wasn't until she was about 25 years old that Gertrude began to truly feel the intensity of her vocation. At that time she had a vision of Jesus, who promised he would bring her Salvation.

From that time on, Gertrude was dedicated to God.

She became a Scripture scholar and a writer, and people came from all over seeking her guidance. She was a happy woman who led people to love God as she did.

She died around the year 1301 following a long and painful illness in which she offered her suffering up for others. Many of her writings have been lost, but some of her books are still studied today. Pope Clement XII declared that she was a saint in 1677.

In 2012, Pope Benedict XVI said of St. Gertrude: "She is one of the most famous mystics, the only German woman to be called "Great" because of her cultural and evangelical stature: her life and her thought had a unique impact on Christian spirituality."
